Abstract	The purpose of this study is to examine the actual condition on volunteer activity in Saga junior college. It was clarified that many students had the experience as a volunteer activity while in college. Students seemed to have chosen the place of the activity by their specialization. It was suggested that students obtained a lot of efficiencies in learning by participation in the volunteer activity and accomplished the growth for independence. Furthermore, we want to examine the educational benefits from both student education and social contribution, and to clarify the educational significance of the volunteer activity in the junior college in the future.
keyword	Volunteer activity, Student education, Social contribution
